Collecting impressions, amassing images, picking up the remains of actions – the group of international artists reside in Berlin have been exploring surrounding environment. Subjectively. Unpretentiously. Carefully. In continuous amplification of occurring views and adrift mirages of visions. Giving a forms and shapes to what used to appear as something inscrutable, unspecified and immersed in thoughts – they reappeared the everyday reality. This collage of multifarious glances and approaches makes intriguing artistic mixture. Salat Fieber!
